Programme administrators or teachers can assign each learner a specific curriculum path. Choose from up to seven paths that are optimised for various skills including speaking, reading, writing, and listening. Rosetta Stone Manager gives administrators smart work tools to support the language-learning experience for individual learners or entire organisations.

From simple to complex organisational structures with thousands of learners or students – Rosetta Stone Manager scales easily to deliver just the right implementation. Whether the need is for definable permissions for multiple levels of administrator access or specialised reporting on learners, Rosetta Stone Manager gives organisations the ability to support their overall language goals.

LICENCE MANAGEMENT
ensures optimal usage.

Proprietary tools make it easy to import, export, register, and reallocate learner licences to ensure that organisations get the most out of their language-learning platform. Across any implementation, Rosetta Stone Manager seamlessly keeps administrators in control of available licences.
