

SHAPING THE FUTURE

Rosetta Stone K-12 User Conference
November 15-16, 2017 | Hilton Nashville Downtown

JOIN US IN SHAPING THE FUTURE.

You're invited to the first Rosetta Stone K-12 User Conference, to be held this November at the Hilton Nashville Downtown.

You may ask yourself, "Why attend a user conference?" We promise it will be well worth the time and expense as we combine education, networking, inspiration, and fun!

LEARN

Continuous learning and time away from the classroom and everyday distractions open our minds to new ideas. You will learn as much from each other as you will from our presenters!

CONNECT

Networking is a core benefit of any conference. Meeting other individuals passionate about language learning stimulates valuable conversations and fosters lasting relationships. It's great for our staff, clients, and colleagues to meet each other. Let's build our community, together!

INSPIRE

Learn and share creative ideas about online language learning best practices, and appreciate what is possible! You will leave with a sense of renewed energies and great new ideas to incorporate into your lesson plans when we get home.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Our conference will be especially beneficial for current users of Rosetta Stone® Foundations who are:

- World Language Teachers
- ELL Teachers
- School Administrators with World language or ELL programs
