

"I was inspired by the female Spanish speakers in my class as well as my teacher. When they speak it sounds beautiful and colorful. The woman in my work represents the female speakers, the shapes show the complex of language as well as how some words are alike but mean different things."